indeed a most impressive man and a very responsive student. In order to receive training in Reports Writing he had been detained in Washington for one week after his family had departed for [REDACTED]. However, his sixteen years in [REDACTED] have evidently made a philosopher of him, for he was a most affable and cooperative trainee.

3. [REDACTED] Training discussed with Mr. [REDACTED], the projected TDY training for WH Division in 1966. [REDACTED] is now in the process of determining the Desk's training needs and will establish priorities in the near future. This will allow the timely scheduling of WH's TDY requirements for the coming year.
